Your LETTERS and LAUGHS PAGE

Dear Editor,

I am going to tell you about my holiday on the Norfolk Broads. My brothers and I had to wear life-jackets. When we went under a bridge my Dad went under it slowly. I would like to ask you if you have ever gone on the Norfolk Broads and see if you should go under a bridge quickly or slowly. When we were not moving we fished off the boat. We fished all the time and did not catch a thing. Could you tell me why we did not catch a thing? There were a lot of ducks in the water and we went through about two loaves. Could you tell me why we gave the ducks more than we got? I hope you put my letter in TV Comic. It is very good. Love Sally Richardson, Perthshire.

Dear Sally,

I have never been to the Norfolk Broads, so I don't know the correct speed for going under bridges. Your Dad got you in one side and out the other in one piece and that's what matters! In fishing, for best results remember to put a hook on the end of your line, and as for the ducks I think you were probably too busy asking questions to eat your share of the bread! Still, I'm sending you a £2.00 postal order towards your next holiday!

Dear Editor,

My Mummy has just given me one of her old books which she got for Christmas in 1954. It is a TV Comic Annual. My Mum's favourite character was Muffin the Mule.

From Steven Morley, Scarborough.

From Heather Palmer, Clanfield, Hants.

Heather Vaughan from Portadown, Northern Ireland, sent us this riddle:

"As I was going to St. Ives,
I met a man with seven wives;
Each wife had seven sacks,
Each sack had seven cats,
Each cat had seven kits.
Kits, cats, sacks and wives,
How many were going to St. Ives?"

Answer at the foot of the page.

From Robert Bedford, Holmwood, Dorking, Surrey.

Dear Editor,

I would like to tell you about my pet dog. He is soft and playful, and has two black paws and two white ones. He always tries to eat bees—although he never bites people! From Duane Smith, Burton-on-Trent, Staffs.

Gosh, Duane! Your dog sounds scatty! I hope he doesn't catch any bees. They could give him a very nasty sting. I don't think the bees would think much of it either!

Dear Editor,

I thought you would like to know how many of my friends read your comic. First of all, my sister gets TV Comic on a Friday, then she passes it to me, I then pass it on to my best friend, who, in turn, lets her two sisters have it. Then the comic is finally passed on to another friend. We all love reading your comic. From Kiran G. Patel, of Wolverhampton.
